Wounded Warrior Project Participates in 2018 Annual Seat Pleasant Day Parade

Warriors will march through the streets of Seat Pleasant

Seat Pleasant, MD (April 27th) – The City of Seat Pleasant: “A Smart City of Excellence” welcomes Wounded Warriors Project (WWP) of Pennsylvania to kick off our Annual Seat Pleasant Day. Seat Pleasant Day is scheduled for Saturday, May 5th at Seat Pleasant Elementary with a day full of events and activities.

Events will include the 2018 Annual Seat Pleasant Day Parade beginning at 11am at Goodwin Park and will consist of over 300 participants. Among those expected to attend the parade is the Wounded Warrior project of Pennsylvania. Wounded Warrior Project (WWP) will bring out hundreds of veterans and their families to take part in the City of Seat Pleasant’s annual celebration.

“We are pleased to have the Wounded Warrior Project be a part of the Seat Pleasant Day parade. We appreciate the sacrifices these veterans have made, and we thank them for their service.” stated Mayor Eugene W. Grant. He went on to say, “This year’s celebration honors our veterans and we encourage all to join us as we honor their sacrifices.”

Hundreds of people will be lined along the streets of Seat Pleasant to cheer on the parade and show their appreciation for the sacrifices made by our nation’s veterans. Gatherings like the Seat Pleasant Day parade provides an opportunity for everyone in and outside of the city to engage, be educated, and empowered.

“Our annual Seat Pleasant Day really is all about bringing the community together to celebrate our wonderful city, The City of Seat Pleasant: A Smart City of Excellence,” expressed Mayor Grant.

Spectators are encouraged to view the parade from the 5900 block of Martin Luther King Jr. Highway or from 5900 to 6000 block of Addison Road.
